HEAD COACH CURTIS PARKER

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH AND ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

CURTIS PARKER—A graduate of the University of Arkansas where he was outstanding in football, basketball, and track, Curtis Parker has won an enviable record since his association with Centenary College.

Parker came to Centenary in 1926 and served as freshman coach three years. Promoted to assistant coach he served with Homer H. Norton five years. The Norton-Parker combination became famous throughout the country as the Gents went through undefeated seasons in 1927, 1932 and 1933 playing many of the outstanding teams in the South. Parker's fame rose as one of the best scouts in the South. When Norton went to Texas A. & M. College, Parker was promoted to Athletic Director and Head Coach. Taking over the team as Head Coach in 1934 Parker has won 35 games, lost 18 and tied 5. Parker is a thorough student of football. He has the ability to develop players and get the most out of his team. He is popular with his team and everyone who knows him.

In addition to his football duties, Parker is also head basketball coach and has coached a number of great teams that have won fame throughout the South and Middle West. He is serving as a member (from the South) of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Rules Committee. He has coached two conference championship teams and in 1934 his team was undefeated.

Preceded by such luminaries as Bo McMillan of Indiana, and Homer Norton of Texas A. & M. College, Parker had a tough assignment when he took over his duties as Head Coach. His record, however, shows that he has more than maintained the high degree of efficiency and success in Centenary athletics. Centenary continues to progress in athletics under the leadership of Athletic Director and Head Coach Curtis Parker.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Coach Tom Cobb

Line Coach

TOM COBB—Line Coach Tom Cobb and Curtis Parker began their acquaintance when the two played freshman football at the University of Arkansas. Cobb was a professional football player with Kansas City, Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago before beginning his coaching career at the Wagoner, Oklahoma High School. In 1936 he became associated with Curtis Parker at Centenary.

Cobb has been unusually successful in developing great forward players at Centenary. He is extremely popular and a pal to every boy on the squad. Centenary's impressive victories over such teams as T. C. U., S. M. U., and Texas A. & M. have been due in a large measure to the great defensive work of the line coached by Tom Cobb.

Coach Cobb is director of Intramural Sports on the campus.

Coach Elmer Smith

Backfield Coach

ELMER SMITH—One of the outstanding athletes of his Alma Mater, Hendrix College in Arkansas, Elmer Smith came to Centenary as backfield coach and No. 1 scout in 1935.

Graduating as a four letterman, Smith began his coaching career at the Hamburg, Arkansas High School. From there he returned to Hendrix College as a member of the coaching staff and then became associated with Curtis Parker at Centenary.

Quiet, soft-spoken, Smith has a knack of turning out good backfield men and is a perfect working combination with Parker.

Coach Smith played three years of professional baseball as a catcher. He was one of the greatest all-round athletes in Arkansas lettering in football, basketball and track.

Coach Smith is also freshman basketball coach and head baseball mentor.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

MARVIN (HOOT) GIBSON—Beginning his 13th year of association with Centenary Hoot is the absolute master of the Centenary team off the field. Formerly a student and assistant trainer Hoot is now beginning his sixth year as Head Trainer. Well liked by the coaches, players and fans Hoot's job is to keep the boys in condition. In view of the fact that Centenary has a small squad, and experienced reserves are scarce, Hoot's job becomes even more important.

Telling the World about YOU!

Steadily and surely, like the growth of the oak, industrial activity grows about us.

Each year, hundreds of businesses are recognizing the great natural advantages of the "Gulf South." Here they find abundant raw materials, an agreeable climate, dependable Natural Gas, competent and conscientious workmen, low cost transportation by land and water.

New industries mean new payrolls, new prosperity, a more stable market for our farm and manufactured products.

This Company is helping to publicize the industrial advantages of the Gulf South in a comprehensive, long-range national advertising campaign, now running in TIME Magazine, Business Week, Dun's Review, and Manufacturers Record.

These advertisements are constantly "telling the world" about YOU and this glorious Southland of ours, and will continue to do so in the future.

FRESHMAN COACH

Lewis Bradley, of Oklahoma City, has been appointed freshman coach for the Gents this season. Bradley begins his affiliation with the Junior Gents after three years as guard on the Centenary varsity. Despite the fact that he weighed only 160 pounds he was recognized as one of the smoothest football players in the South. He was an outstanding guard on both defense and offense and had an uncanny ability to diagnose plays. He has a thorough knowledge of football fundamentals.

Our Advertisers

Loyal Supporters of Centenary Athletics

THE publication of this program is made possible by the generous support of the firms and individuals whose advertisements appear on its pages.

We believe the Centenary Football Program to be an excellent advertising medium. Yet we freely concede that some of those who are advertising this year are doing so because of a desire to help Centenary.

This support is sincerely appreciated by everyone connected with the athletic department. We know that many of these advertisers made exception to their regular advertising policy in buying our space. In every case their cordial feeling toward the College and its athletic representatives entered into the contract.

On behalf of every Centenary athletic interest, we take this opportunity to make acknowledgment and to thank our friends—the advertisers in this book.

We know them well and have dealt with most of them. They are real Gents Boosters—in good times or in bad—and we earnestly recommend them to your favorable consideration and patronage.
